

COMMUNITY HEALTH WORKER

FREE TRAINING PROGRAM

- ✓ Do you like helping people?
- ✓ Are you passionate about helping individuals and families in your community?
- ✓ Would you like to turn your passion for helping others into a fulfilling career?

If you answered YES to any of these questions, then the Community Health Worker (CHW) Training Program might be the right fit for you!

For more information please call/email Estela or complete the form at the link below:

📞 707-285-2964

✉ evmartinez@aliadoshealth.org

🔗 North Bay CHW Training Program Inquiries

What is a Community Health Worker?

- Serves as a bridge between health & social services and the community
- Advocates and empowers individuals & communities
- Works to improve health outcomes

The Community Health Worker Training Program is a collaboration between Aliados Health, Northern California Center for Well Being, and Touro University California and made possible with funding from the Human Resources and Services Administration.